CAMILLE LEPAGE AWARD 2020 Rules

Article 1

The Association named “Camille Lepage – On est ensemble” was founded on September 20, 2014, only months after the death of the photojournalist Camille Lepage while reporting in the Central African Republic.

The association was set up by her family (her parents Maryvonne & Guy Lepage and brother Adrien) to commemorate Camille, her work and commitment, to provide assistance and protection for photojournalists working in conflict areas, to support communities that are victims of such conflicts, and, while doing so, to promote values that were so important to Camille.

The publishing house CDP Editions - Collection des photographes published the book of Camille Lepage's last reports in the Central African Republic, République centrafricaine: On est ensemble, and donated all proceeds from sales to the Association Camille Lepage – On est ensemble. Through this initiative, the Association Camille Lepage – On est ensemble was able to set up part of the Camille Lepage Award, and fund the prize money of 8000 euros during two years with the financial support of the SAIF*.

The Award is being sponsored since two years by the Société des Auteurs des arts visuels et de l'Image Fixe – SAIF (8 000 euros).

The award will provide support and encouragement for a photojournalist committed to a long-term project. The photojournalist applying for the award is hereinafter referred to as the “Applicant.”
